

Senior Consultants

We're always on the lookout for consultants to join our fantastic team.

HDN is an organisation with a bold social mission – we work with housing organisations and charities in a truly transformative way, developing the strategic plans, systems and the processes they need to become be more inclusive in these rapidly changing times.

We like to believe we are innovative, imaginative and highly skilled in what we do. However, there's always room to improve and we want to be the best in the business.

We're all working online at the moment but we're a national organisation with a diverse portfolio of work. Probably in future we'll do both virtual and online delivery.

We're especially looking for people who can lead projects and engage collaboratively with our clients. You will apply your critical thinking and problem-solving skills to help our clients determine how they can best meet the needs of their local communities.

We'd be really interested to hear from people who can tick a number of the points below:

- Expert knowledge of equality, diversity and inclusion
- Understanding of the work of the housing sector
- Ability to facilitate and lead EDI strategy development in both large and small organisations
- Experience of working with boards and governance teams
- Experience of diverse recruitment programmes
- Great communication skills
- Ability to write logical and well-structured reports

We're going to start this off as a freelance arrangement and we'll see how things go from there.
