HDN Events for Board Members

What is the role and responsibility of a board? What are the trends in housing regulation?
How can we champion equality and diversity in a board setting?

As housing organisations are working harder than ever to adapt to a rapidly changing world, effective corporate governance is essential. Our series of events for board members – both online and in person – are designed to give you a deeper understanding of the principles and practices of good governance, and the roles and responsibilities of a board.

Have a look here to view all our events we are offering.

Whether you're already on a board or looking to join one we look to develop your capabilities and enable you to make meaningful contributions to a board. Don't forget that we also offer training for boards and executive teams on Leading on the Equality and Diversity Agenda in partnership with our colleagues at Devonshire's, click here to find out more.

HDN joint research with Gridizen

We began a piece of research in November to try and establish an understanding of the links between Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) and Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI).

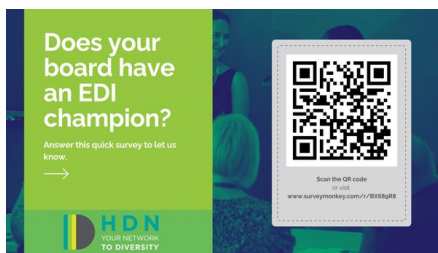

We've gathered some fascinating insights so far, but we're still looking for feedback from organisations to strengthen our data. We would greatly appreciate if you could take a few moments to fill out our research survey: <https://form.typeform.com/to/gmXfPb8>

If you are having any issues in completing the survey, or would like a PDF format of the survey to aid your completion, please

Survey on Board Champions' effectiveness

In today's workplace, Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) is an important cornerstone for fostering a friendly and welcoming workplace where everyone feels safe and included.

The people who support and lead these efforts at an organisation are called EDI champions. Board EDI champions help push initiatives that ensure fairness, representation, and equal opportunities for all members of their workforce.

We're curious to know about the EDI champions in your workplace.

Take part in our EDI Survey!
